FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"THE MINDS OF BILLY MILLIGAN" TO BE PRESENTED AT USD MARCH 29

Author and educator Daniel Keyes will speak on "The Minds of Billy Milligan" at the University of San Diego on March 29 at 8:00 p.m. in Camino Theater.

General admission tickets, $3, and senior citizen or student tickets, $2.50, can be purchased at the door. For information call 293-4802.

"The Minds of Billy Milligan," a multi-media presentation based on Keyes' fourth book, is the true story of a twenty-three year old man who became the first person in U.S. history to be acquitted of a major crime by reason of multiple personalities. Milligan, arrested in 1977 as the Ohio State University "campus rapist," possessed "medically unprecedented, twenty-four completely separate personalities," according to Keyes' documentation.

Keyes, an English faculty member of Ohio University in Athens, was awarded the 1959 Hugh Award for best short story for "Flowers for Algernon." His later novel of the same name was made into the film "Charley."
